

Contents	page
Foreword	i
Chapter 1.
About experiencing the harmony of the planet and star spheres	1
Chapter 2.
How to come to insight in and the experience of the sphere harmony in part and overall
a. The plan of man from the cosmos	4
b. The cosmic octave as the archetype of development of man and cosmos	4
c. Scales of the Zodiac	7
d. Planet scales	8
e. Rhythms and life	11
f. Measure types out of the planet dances	12
g. The horoscope as a reflection of the cosmic order in our four bodies	13
Chapter 3. Ways of working and methods	16
a. Introducing exercises	16
b. Experiencing colors as workings in the soul	16
c. Experiencing a plant after the elementary image of our being	17
d. Waking up the experience of the sphere harmonies	19
e. Making music out of the horoscope	20
f. Singing to the own inner world of organs and chakra's, with the help of rhythms	21
g. Making music with planet sounds in the landscape and observe the answer	22
h. Singing to the star images	24
Chapter 4. Some examples	25
a. The horoscope of winter solstice 2012 in sound and rhythm	25
b. Singing the sevenfoldness out of the planets	30
c. The Song of Memory of the Inner Grail	32
d. Three songs of Parcival	57
About reading the names and events in the stars and in Grail	57
About a horoscope out of the word sounds of Parcival	60
e. Widar Songs	66
f. Songs of the Inner Temple	91
g. Song for the Roaming Deaths	103
h. A ritual ad and between landscape points	114
Chapter 5. Deepening	119
a. The star constellations in sound and rhythm; for persons and in larger landscapes	119
b. Angel hierarchies, sphere and music/singing	139
c. String instruments for the sounds of the Zodiac	142
d. And further on	143
* 2 planet dances	143
* The Lotus Flower Dance	143
* The Song of Becoming, Degeneration and Healing	144
* Music theater play 'Once'	144
* Working with the Sun of Man in the clouds and within: at Ascension Day	145
* Working with the Angel hierarchies at Pentecost	145
Epilog	145